Andy was away for the final time, this time on his last full day in New York, so Julie Harvey again took Dictaphone duties..... Josh was still out injured so Dan stayed at centre-half and Spike stayed on the right.

The line up was:

		Joby
Spike	Dan	Aaron	Joel
Jay	Sam	Tom	Max
	Andy	Joe

Substitute: Kallan

Again our reporters missed the first half for some reason, so all we got was that, Joel was injured in the first-half, Max & Andy had shots that had gone close, and that it was cold, wet and absolutely blowing a gale. We had defended against the wind and had kept a clean sheet, and the hope was that we would use it to our advantage in the second.

Sam had a run at goal and shot, but it was deflected out for a throw. He took it and got it to Tom, who set himself and shot, but it flew over the crossbar. The wind was so hard, that they took the goal-kick wide and it bent out straight for a throw to us. Joe took it to Tom, and he found Max. Max turned two or three times to lose his marker and forced a corner. It was swung over and Sam was there to meet it 1-0. Joel won the ball and found Max. He beat his marker and was off down the lined where he forced a corner. Sam swung the corner in and it came out as far as Joe, who shot, but the 'keeper was able to catch it. At this point the cold, wet, incessant rain started to come down even harder, and our reporter wasn't very happy! Apparently she felt that Andy should be there and not on holiday. We won a penalty which Tom took, but he missed. He won the ball back from the goal-kick, but this time his shot was into the side netting. We forced a series of corners and goal-kicks with the wind behind us, before Tom won the ball, laid it over and Andy was there to finish it off 2-0. Andy was put through again at the end, but he poked his shot wide.

Man of the Match – Chosen by Dave for excellent play and effort – The Whole Team *Afterthoughts.....

 Again I am unable to comment, but from what I have heard, not just from this team, but from other Frys teams who played on the day, the conditions were atrocious. I heard stories of players at some games wanting to leave the pitch during the game, or end the game early where they were cold. That was not the case here. Our boys fought for everything until the end of the game, and it is testament to them and their courage that that was the case. Well done!*
